What User likes about Permanently Closed Frontier: Menu options for all in a lovely converted mill building, complete with a coffee bar and entertainment venue. Very good food was delivered with friendly service. A great view, high ceilings and temporary art exhibit provided a feast for the senses read more. What User doesn't like about Permanently Closed Frontier: we ordered the vegan nachos, quinoa bowl and mushroom melt. the cashew cheese on the nachos was tasteless, as the quinoa bowl in general - no recognizable dressing or sauce. the mushroom melt had a strange mildewy taste, a bit like when shiitake begins to go badly. when we got our sack, it felt like a blackmail in the face of the meal. read more. A visit to Permanently Closed Frontier is particularly valuable due to the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. In addition, there are fine American dishes, such as burgers and grilled meat, Particularly tasty are also the Maki and specialties like Inside-Out from this place.
