Have been here twice, strongly recommend to anyone who's looking for an Asian fine dining experience, and I think Khai deserves at least one Michelin star. The entire place only has tables, so the overall experience was very intimate and private. Chef Khai even came out and greeted each guest, which is hard to come by at any place and I really appreciate that. Chef Khai is a celebrity chef in Vietnam and was judging... read more. What

User doesn't like about Permanently Closed Khai:

Interior decoration is old. For the price we paid, it's not very worthwhile. The waiter didn't ask if we need our coat to be hung so we had to pile our coats on the seat. Plus some dishes taste plain and others taste too strong read more. A visit to Permanently Closed Khai becomes even more rewarding due to the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, Furthermore, the sugar-sweet treats of this restaurant sparkle not only in the eyes of our young guests. The preparation of the meals is done authentically Asian, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
