The menu of San Sun from San Andreas includes 30 dishes. On average, dishes or drinks on the menu cost about $6.7. The categories can be viewed on the menu below. What Yvonne L likes about San Sun: This is my go-to spot in chinatown since I was a kid. They serve teo chew food, which is my mom's people. My favorite things to order are the Fried Oysters with Egg as an appetizer (with a dipping sauce made of fish sauce and white pepper) and the Satay Ho Fun noodles (flat, wide rice noodles) with my meat of choice being pork kidney. You can't really get kidney in a lot of restaurants, but legit Teo Chew places have... read more. As a customer, you can use the WiFi of the place free of charge. What Melinda L doesn't like about San Sun: When they were still at the other location, where the Bart is, I would go there every weekend with my family. From what I remember, the food was delicious! Leek Dumpling: It 's not as good as I remember it. It 's too soft. If you try to get it with chopsticks it will crumble. Chiu Chow Combination Noodle: I usually get this at other restaurants, but first time trying it here. I got the ho fun rice noodle and thin egg... read more.
