Upscale, but not uptight Middle Eastern restaurant with exquisite food and presentation. Seating is available indoors or out and at the bar. Staff was friendly and accommodating. During brunch hours on a Saturday and not having reservations, there were no table seats available, so we ended up eating at the bar, but it wasn't too cramped and we still felt attended to. Our bartender made a really good strawberry basil... read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. An additional service offered by the restaurant is the catering service for guests, You can also unwind at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. Similarly, the eatery serves a rounded diversity of tasty tapas, which are certainly worth a taste, Customers repeatedly praise the tasty, light flatbread that can be dipped into the self-made hummus or a yoghurt dip; the unusual combination of figs and goat cheese is among the highlights from the diverse culinary landscape of the Middle East.
