What User likes about Rosa Mexicano By Lincoln Center:

I think the new menu is unfortunate. It is clumsy and inconvenient. Also I do not care for the music piped. It is noisy rather than musical in the accepted sense of the word read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about

Rosa Mexicano By Lincoln Center:

It's incredibly sad to see a much-loved NYC mainstay enter into such a precipitous decline following the pandemic. The kitchen staff struggled to produce food in a timely manner (despite operating from a significantly reduced and uninspiring menu, which seems to no longer include desserts). As the situation deteriorated throughout the course of the evening, the waiting staff disappeared entirely from the floor, leavi... read more.

Anticipate the varied, delicious Mexican cuisine, which is usually prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks. If you'd like something sweet to finish off, Rosa Mexicano By Lincoln Center does not disappoint with its good selection of desserts.
