The restaurant from Atlanta offers 130 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average $16.1. What User likes about Einstein's:

Good food, but bad service. Didn't even get greeted for the first minutes after sitting down. Took forever for drinks, and some of them came out wrong. Would've wanted to order more drinks, but the server didn't come back to offer us anything after our food arrived. Waited about minutes just to get the check and cash out so that we could leave. Food and ambiance were good, but the service made us not want to return read more. In pleasant weather you can even eat and drink in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Einstein's: The service was absolutely awful. We were a large party that came for brunch and it took us hours TOTAL to finish brunch and we each ended up only having drinks because it took literally an hour to get another. I don't know what was going on, but I don't think I'd bring anyone back there. The food was decent, the atmosphere outside was good, I wouldn't sit inside. It's kind of dark and outdated read more. If you want to try fine American dishes like burgers or barbecue, Einstein's from Atlanta is the place to be, You can also discover nice South American menus in the menu. If you decide to come for breakfast, a versatile brunch is ready for you.
