It was wonderful. You can't put a price on that kind of peaceful environment. Food and service were all off the charts. Our server was knowledgeable and attentive. We specifically were drawn to Dos Brisas because the food was organic, and we were not disappointed read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Inn At Dos Brisas:

Inconsistent wine list. Not sure if the sommelier was there during lunch but the advice was poor. Confusion as to the wage beef although the fact that my wife ordered the same entree made things more difficult. Service generally not at the level experienced in the past. Again, may have been due to a late lunch reservation and not dinner. Also notable was the absence of any non sweet rose bubbly by the glass. read more. If you want to try tasty American dishes like burgers or barbecue, Inn At Dos Brisas from Washington is the place to be, In addition, the delectable desserts of the local shine not only on children's plates or in the eyes of the little guests. Fresh seafood, meat, as well as corn and potatoes are also South American grilled here, and you can look forward to typical scrumptious French cuisine.
