What User likes about Thaiverse: The food was excellent and our server was very attentive. She was knowledgeable about the menu items and careful to provide correct allergy information when asked. The portions were on the small side and it was a little pricey, but we would still definitely go back and recommend Thaiverse to others read more. The restaurant and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Thaiverse:

First time visiting the restaurant for Valentines Day. Took about to take our drink order. Our server made a comment that the kitchen was really busy. So we ordered an appetizer (went with option since what we wanted was "out," along with our main dishes. The appetizers were hot and tasted delicious. For the main dishes, my wife ordered Pad Thai with shrimp and I ordered a Ginger vegetable plate with shrimp. The Pad... read more. A visit to Thaiverse is particularly valuable due to the extensive range of coffee and tea specialties, Besides, the successful blend of different dishes with new and partially adventurous ingredients is appreciated by the guests - a good case of Asian Fusion. If you'd like something after-dinner treat for dessert, Thaiverse does not disappoint with its extensive selection of desserts, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
