Layout is not convenient. Ended up seating at a table in front of the reception area where a corridor should (theoretically) be. Small place with open kitchen does not pair well (aka strong smell). Food is okay read more.

What User doesn't like about Oli.vine The Mediterranean Project:

I was really excited to try Oli.Vine after looking at the menu and peering inside, so went there with my roommates last night and we agreed that we rated it a The dessert was the best part of our meal, but everything else I felt I could've had elsewhere or made better myself. Our server also seemed very uninterested in serving us. The restaurant is cute, but tables are close to each other and it's pretty loud for a s... read more. If you want to a beer after work and sit with friends or alone, Oli.vine The Mediterranean Project from Astoria is a good bar, Additionally, well digestible Mediterranean dishes are available. If you'd like something sweet to finish off, Oli.vine The Mediterranean Project does not disappoint with its extensive selection of desserts, and you can look forward to the fine traditional seafood cuisine.
