This is an amazing local cozy with unapologetic cheesy and colorful touches everywhere. The food is the best. I had the chocolate and berry ricotta crepe and neckby had the queue Lorraine. The quiche was rich and smokey-baconey with a delicate crust and the crepe was divinely light and sweet, dipped with chocolate and sitting in a puddle of mixed berries goodness. I made unintentional noises during the first half of... read more. What User

doesn't like about Leaf Kitchen:

I really enjoyed my food and the passion of the cook making it (I got a cool seat from which I could see the cooking happening) only disappointing thing is that they were understaffed so some things took a while to come out and my Dad's eggs Benedict was cold by the time he got it. Probably won't go back if this is a consistent feature. read more.
