What User likes about Early American: 10/10 experience, the cook went out of his way to make me a cake in the form of the entire US declaration of independence and I hate an explosion eating John Hancock signature. While I waited the waitress gave me a full service pedicure and shrubbed and massaged my legs. Really nice, because I usually have to do this part on my own. I told her I was sad and I felt lost, so the whole crew came together and baptized me in the sink. I had not only a great meal, but also found Jesus and am in a new way in life. Again 10/10 experience. You can use the WiFi of the establishment at no extra cost. What User doesn't like about Early American: Food is usually good, but sometimes quality and presentation suffers when staffing is short. Prices are very good, they take credit cards, plenty of street parking. Service, with one long time staffer in mind, can be less than friendly. read more.
