Sandwich was a little dry for me but the service was good. Took my order and I waited looking at the beautiful mountain side. They set the jalapeno outside the bun for those who can't eat spicy so that was thoughtful. Cool down with coconut juice. read more. You can use the WiFi of the place at no extra cost, And into the accessible spaces also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What JP F doesn't like about Vietnam Kitchen:

I ordered and I was told that dish is too long to make. I was like uhm ook so I just walked out. Also prices are exorbitant. I found better places with good price and selection. No bueno.
