The place from Westminster offers 93 different dishes and drinks on the card at an average $8.1. What User likes about The Cajun Corner:

I was here today and had a waiter named Steven. He was amazing for us and treated us so well, he ensured that we were constantly comfortable and even sweating around and made the dining place feel like at home. The food was pretty good and came out really fast and Steven was immediately on it! There were also other tables, but he ensured that everyone felt comfortable and saw other tables satisfied with the service. read more. What

User doesn't like about The Cajun Corner:

Ordnete chicken wings, Clam Chowder and Jambalaya rice on the door pocket. Chicken wings were the wrong taste, ordered lemon pepper and got garlic, even it had a bad smell. The Clam Chowder was okay, and the Jambalaya rice was Blande. read more. The restaurant also offers its visitors a catering service, Furthermore, the customers love the inventive combination of different dishes with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion. Furthermore, they serve you flavorful seafood meals, You can take a break at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
