Permanently Closed Le Zinc:

Unfortunately this was the final night under the current owner. He has retired after he lost his wife and sold to a french restaurant in Glen Park. The food was excellent! The only waiter on duty was much too busy without any busboy showing up. He did his best considering, but directed a quip to me that I did not appreciate that "I could complain on YELP". The restaurant has great ambience but the food was subpar especially for the price they were charging. There was no love in the prep. The service was attentive. Highlight of the meal was the wine flight. read more. Different exquisite French dishes are served in Permanently Closed Le Zinc from San Francisco, Moreover, the delicious desserts of the house shine not only on children's plates and in children's eyes. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), still relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
