We had a very enjoyable experience. None of us had ever eaten at the cafe before and were very impressed.

The food was very good, especially the popovers. My only disappointment was with the "Winter Salad". I was expecting a composed salad but was presented with what looked like a pile of weeds. All the long stems were left on the arugula making it difficult to eat. My dining companions raved about their choices. Who... read more. You

Somewhat disappointing experience given the high expectations of lunch at Nieman Marcus. Staff were all excellent, although the waiter did disappear for a long time after we asked for another minute to review the menu.. a long time. Perhaps our choice was poor. The winter salad was a generous plate of expensive greens with little else. Not the birthday celebration I had hoped for. read more.
