Dined at Prime two years ago and were wowed. This was the basis for our lunch reservation. Sadly, the restaurant had moved physical location within the hotel and the menu changed considerably. New digs and menu were a work in progress - sat in bar area while final touches were being made. (Previously, this restaurant and its fare were top rated by Forbes. Now it is an upscale cocktail lounge - sad to say ambiance los... read more. In nice weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Prime 108:

We arrived at Union Station to find that Prime is no longer open, which was very unfortunate given the fact that they let us make a reservation which was confirmed by Open Table. Luckily we were able to secure a table at another restaurant in Nashville. read more. If you're craving for some fiery South American culinary arts, this is the place to be: delightful menus, roasted with fish, seafood delicacies, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, here they serve a comprehensive brunch for breakfast. At the bar, you can also relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you may look forward to the fine typical seafood cuisine.
