The food and service are very good here, but actually dining is a miserable experience. On our first trip, we were seated alone in an empty room. The only person we saw was our server. It was boring and lonely. The second time, we came with two friends, and we were seated in a very small room that might have been either a nursery or pantry. I go out for the whole experience, including being among other diners. Our experi... read more. What

User doesn't like about Quivey's Grove Stone House:

We were unimpressed with the seating process. We had made a reservation with the hostess could not find. Not our fault, that we were sad at a pretty crappy table and in the way of the servers. That absolutely dampened our experience as we were constantly in the way. read more. For breakfast, a tasty brunch is offered at Quivey's

Grove Stone House in Fitchburg that you can enjoy as much as you like. Moreover, the drinks menu of this gastropub offers a good and especially extensive variety of beers from the region and the world that are definitely worth a try. At the bar, you can still relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink. You'll find scrumptious South American cuisine also in the menu.
