The Menu of El Cholo Cafe from Pasadena contains about 89 different meals and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $19.7. What User likes about El Cholo Cafe:

Food and service were good. The only drawback was that the restaurant failed to check us in with Open Table which resulted in me receiving an email from Open Table stating that we missed our reservation. I subsequently had to spend time responding to the email from Open Table and provide information from my receipt such as the amount we spent and name of our server as evidence we were actually at the restaurant. When the weather is pleasant you can also eat and drink outside, And into the accessible rooms also come visitors with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. What User doesn't like about El Cholo Cafe:

Food overly priced for the quality and quantity of it. We ordered chicken tortilla soup and looked like a few strands of chicken in broth only. We immediately asked the waitress for another item as we were very disappointed in the soup. Also ordered beef fajitas and was provided with a lot more veggies than the actual beef! Another disappointment. We will probably not go back in the near future. read more. At El Cholo Cafe in Pasadena, a delicious brunch is served in the morning, where you can have your fill feast, and you can look forward to the scrumptious typical seafood cuisine. In addition to sweet pieces, cakes, and small snacks, we also have cold and hot drinks, At the bar, you can relax with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
