What User likes about The Public House Tap Grill: I was excited to find this jewel. I have a gluten intolerance and this place can make almost everything on their menu gluten-free. I had for the first time in years fish and chips, and it was extremely tasty and crispy. I recommend the cheese curds. light and crispy with a hauch saltiness. I couldn't stop her. if they have a gluten insensitivity, this is a must try! 4/14/22 update- I tried the fried green tomaten, th... read more. What User doesn't like about The Public House Tap Grill: I was a bit surprised entering in. The atmosphere seemed kind of stark. Was expecting something like a British pub feel. But I guess not every Public House has to be English or Irish themed. I was skeptical. But the service was very good and pleasant...and the food was perfect! The presentation alone of the plates impressed me. I had the black and bleu burger which was delicious. I rarely eat french fries but decided... read more.
