We had a great time at Medina. The hospitality and service is the best I have experienced in a long time anywhere. The food was delicious. I highly recommend the sampler appetizer, but go ahead and plan on getting extra pita to go with it. You will want to make sure you eat all of it! read more. The diner and its premises are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about Medina Oven:

It was under staffed. We sat at the bar and can see the kitchen right there. Lots of food were ready to be delivered to the tables but the food were set in the kitchen counter some at least 10 or 20 minutes and the staff didn't deliver the food to the tables as priority. Our food was half warm when we got them. read more.
