What User likes about Gurkhas:

The food tasted exceptional. You can tell the ingredients are freshly prepared. Service was very good. You can tell it is family owned and they take pride in their establishment. Servings are a bit small, but I'd rather have quality over quantity. read more. The rooms on site are wheelchair accessible and can also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations, Depending on the weather conditions, you can also sit outside and have something. What Meagan Dietrich doesn't like about Gurkhas:

This was my 3rd dining experience at Gurkhas. The food is interesting: Nepali cuisine is clearly influenced by Chinese Indian cuisine. I enjoyed the Momo dumplings and the Chicken Tikka Masala with some Naan. All were good but not amazing. I wanted to enjoy a beer with my meal but they don't have their license yet. read more. Gurkhas in Longmont offers freshly prepared delectable dishes with typical Indian spices and sides like rice or naan, there are also tasty vegetarian recipes in the menu.
