The restaurant from Jacksonville offers 201 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average $36.1. What User likes about Jj's Bistro De Paris:

JJ's Bistro is a hidden gem in Southside that my wife and I frequent often. The menu is a well executed French cuisine with a decent wine list. On our last visit we got the mussels for an appetizer, I got the steak au poivre and my wife got the strip on top of the seafood risotto. The steaks and mussels were good, but the seafood risotto absolutely stole the show. We finished our meal with the banana florentine which... read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological limitations, Depending on the weather, you can also sit outside and have something. What User doesn't like about Jj's Bistro De Paris:

Food was extremely over salted. Every course had too much salt. The soup was not edible because of the amount salt. The entrees were also way too salty. We had high expectations from reviews and were seriously disappointed. It will be a one and done for us. read more. This Bistro stands out for its smallness, but finesse, not only for its ambiance, but also due to its offerings of typical, tasty meals at traditionally affordable prices, In addition, the charming desserts of the restaurant shine not only on children's plates or in the eyes of the little guests. Also, they proffer you fine seafood dishes, At the bar, you can unwind with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
