A great little local diner. We had breakfast here after picking up my daughter from camp. Service was quick and very friendly. The blueberry french toast had fresh blueberries added to the bread before cooking. Very tasty. My wife's omelet had fresh spinach as well as feta cheese and was very good as were the home fries. My daughters french toast sticks were not the frozen variety and were deep fried and very crispy.... read more. What Alyssa M doesn't like about Country Kitchen:

Kind of sad, because I actually really like this place.. But my mother and I called on a Monday before going there because we weren't sure if they were open or not. The woman answered the phone and with a lot of attitude, responded with We're not open today. Then hung up. Her tone was not nice, it was annoyed. Like, how dare we call on her day off? The food is good but she just lost 2 customers who will not be back... read more.
