The Card of Niagara Seafood from Buffalo includes about 159 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $7.7. What Rick C likes about Niagara Seafood:

I re-visited this place after a long time. We ordered spring roll, bahn-mi with salad, and a extra large pho. Soup was very good although it tasted like a little bit of instant pho soup. It was a lot better than other places in Buffalo I have been, including the portion of the food. I barely finished the pho! Also, spring roll was thick enough to fill my stomach. Each day has different discounted menu. They were kind... read more. Fresh mint, fine salad, sprouts and a few drops of lime combined with rice noodles and meat - all of this can be found not only during your vacation in Vietnam in the menu, but also when visiting the nearby Niagara Seafood in Buffalo, on the menu there are also a lot of Asian dishes. Also, they offer you flavorful seafood meals, Furthermore, the visitors love the inventive combination of different menus with new and partially experimental ingredients - a nice example of successful Asian Fusion.
