The restaurant from Washington, D.C. offers 110 different dishes and drinks on the menu at an average $12.6.

What User likes about Mayahuel:

Service, food and ambiance were great. The portion size of the dishes we had were more than adequate. We both ordered the Machaca and neither one of us could finish the entire dish. read more. What User doesn't like about Mayahuel:

The restaurant was understaffed and service suffered because of it. The food was good, drinks were not good. Drinks on the rocks we served it up glasses with a mound of ice. One person ordered a strawberry with a sugar rim that came with a salt rim. My first drink was good, yet the second drink was vastly different and undrinkable.

IMO, this points to an issue with management staffing and quality control. read more. Get excited about the diverse, fine Mexican cuisine, which is traditionally cooked with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers).
