The Menu of The Steakhouse At Cooper's from Dallas contains about 180 different menus and drinks. On average, you pay for a dish / drink about $7.8. What User likes about The Steakhouse At Cooper's: Romantic and quiet, we were able to be seated on one of their busiest nights ever with the reservation. Service was a little slow but with the relaxed atmosphere and it being a busy valentine's day, I don't hold that against them The food was delicious. read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological limitations. What User doesn't like about The Steakhouse At Cooper's: Limited menu but beautifully prepared. One of us had the lobster tail which is so often overcooked and rubbery. This one was soft and succulent. The ambiance is more market than cafe but spare and nice. The only complaint was the overly bright outside lighting that made the row of seats facing the window uncomfortable. We asked to be moved and were without any problem but on a busier night this might not be possible. read more. If you want to a beer after work and hang out with friends, The Steakhouse At Cooper's from Dallas is a good bar, and you can try fine American meals like Burger or Barbecue. Even South American fresh fish, meat, as well as beans and potatoes are grilled here, here they serve a comprehensive brunch for breakfast.
