Came on Christmas Eve so we expected it to be busy and service slower than usual. We received our first three dishes very quickly then nothing. After minutes the waitress asked if we wanted our check. We told her we were missing more dishes. Confusion in the kitchen and finally received our food. Waitress was apologetic. read more. What User doesn't like about Dragonwell Bistro:

We had soup dumplings. They were warm and had little flavor. The Orange chicken was cut into large pieces and was warm and somewhat mushy and slimy. The Subgum and pork in Black Bean Sauce was awful. There was no pork chop. It was dried out Char Siu pork in something sweet and black beans. The vegetable part was undercooked broccoli, button mushrooms, onions and carrots. Again served warm. Also had the Cashew Chicken... read more.
