What User likes about Bellwether:

I sat outside which I thought would be nice but the people on the street asking me for things was off putting. My meal was bland. I had the catch of the day. Service was great though. read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus reachable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What User doesn't like about Bellwether:

We were early birds (5:15 reservation), and despite the dining room being only partially full, carrying on a conversation was difficult. Wine list looked good, but both of our choices for wine were unavailable. Food was excellent, but portions were on the small side. Service was a bit slow, despite the limited number of guests. I expected more for my $180 dinner for two. read more. If you crave for sweet treats, Bellwether with its fine desserts can surely make an end of it, Here you'll find sweet pastries and cake, small snacks and chilled refreshments and hot beverages. At the bar, you can still relax after the meal (or during it) with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, and you can enjoy here fine American meals like Burger or Barbecue.
