The restaurant from Orlando offers 209 different meals and drinks on the menu at an average $11.8. What User likes about Amura Dr. Phillips:

I used to come here a lot when I lived in area and was looking forward to dinner there. I can honestly say I will never be back. It is definitely under new management. They were only full and waiter did not come to table for minutes and when he took our order he didn't write anything down and got so many things wrong. After such a long wait and we just accepted whatever food the waiter ordered from the voices in hi... read more. What User doesn't like about Amura Dr. Phillips:

This is not Amura even though it has some of the same menu items. Limited entree selection, new name and new decor. Service was a little slow. The people at some of the surrounding tables seemed to have the same problem with slow service as well. Not the best experience overall, but the food was good. read more. If eating and drinking is too unexciting for you, go to this sports bar for a variety of small snacks and menus and catch live football, tennis or Formula 1 games, Particularly tasty are also the Maki and delicacies like Te-Maki from this restaurant. It goes without saying that a suitable drink completes a meal; therefore this gastropub presents a diverse diversity of tasty and local alcoholic options, be it beer or wine, It's possible to chill out at the bar with a freshly tapped beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
