The restaurant is lovely, food, ambiance and service good. However it has moved!! Open Table should make clear that the reservation I thought I made was for a restaurant that clearly had closed. It was only as I moved down the street looking for something else that I found the new location. Giving the address on the same street doesn't matter if a customer is familiar with the place. The street number is ignored. LET... read more. What User doesn't like about Caffè Buon Gusto Montague:

The ambience was nice for a casual date night. The Calamari was quite bland and the marinara sauce had almost no taste. My friends Penne Wodka was extremely tasteless, I didn't have a sauce all over this gland. My lobster linguine was actually pretty good the only thing we got that I would recommend. The servers were nice, but overall the experience was nothing to escape. The location on the upper east side is much b... read more.
