Great local place with a casual friendly vibe. Comfort food featuring local farm to table. Even the beers were all from the Midwest. Staff could not be friendlier. Shrimp and grits, po-boy and fried chicken were all excellent. Can't wait to come back for the bread pudding dessert. read more. The restaurant offers complimentary WLAN for its visitors, And into the accessible spaces also come customers with wheelchairs or physical disabilities. If the weather conditions are right, you can also have something to eat outside. What User doesn't like about

Solstice:

Great food. Great service. But last times I've been there with my significant other, the owner's or chef's wife and kids are hanging out in one of the tables all night and the kids are loud, walking around the restaurant, and dropping food on floor. I have nothing against kids. Honestly. But it's not appropriate for a small restaurant like this. It ruins the atmosphere and ambiance for an otherwise wonderful place. I... read more.
