What User likes about The Forest Nook: Very friendly staff and very cozy atmosphere. The food was pretty good, but nothing turned out to be excellent at both meals. Large selection of available dishes, so will likely return to try other offers. Many dessert options that we unfortunately do not get a chance to try, but definitely something for everyone and I am happy to try them the next time we go to Cook Forest. Parts were perfect. Cleaning was notch. read more. What User doesn't like about The Forest Nook:

10/10 for aesthetics. My husband and I ate here while on vacation and while, yes, the place is adorable, it is overpriced for food that just wasn't that great. The fries taste just like McDonalds. The stuffed mushrooms weren't the best we had. A little slimy to me. And the cafe latte (which is just burnt black coffee in a mug) my husband ordered was served hot enough to melt the resin on the table. The servers never once smiled to us and seemed to hate the place more than we did. And then as a bonus my husband and I got sick directly after eating here!

0/10 would not recommend. If you're desiring some spicy South American cuisine, you've come to the right place: delicious menus, cooked with fish, seafood, and meat, though corn, beans, and potatoes are also in the menu, Also, the guests of the restaurant love the extensive variety of differing coffee and tea specialities that the establishment has to offer. In addition, there are delicious American meals, such as burgers and grilled meat, the menu also includes delectable vegetarian menus.
