It was a beautiful place, our first time here, but definitely enjoyed our meal! We ordered the miraculous chili oil, Xiaolong bow, the Chinese pancakes and Szechuan rice! Everything was great, the tiny chili oil caught me from the guard because it had a peanut taste (peanut oil? and it wasn't sharp except that everything else was good!

The highlight was the rice, it was very aromatic and well seasoned, very delicious... read more. What User doesn't like about Lulu's Kitchen:

If you always increase the price, you should not make the part smaller and smaller. The price they asked is also different from those listed on their menu. We paid about $80, but before it was about $40. I don't owe them too much to increase the price, but look at the part you get. We've been customer for 5 years, but from now on we won't order more from here. So disappointed. read more. A selection of tasty seafood menus is dished out by the Lulu's Kitchen from Dublin, on the daily specials there are also a lot of Asian menus. visitors particularly appreciate the versatile, scrumptious Chinese cuisine, The successful fusion of different dishes with fresh and occasionally daring products is highly valued by the visitors - a good example of Asian Fusion.
