Cute little place near the closter plaza (on the same street as Gongcha). Mango bingsu was great. Not just ice with syrup like other places. I wish they put more condensed milk with mango syrup though. We also got the croissant taiyaki in Nutella and red bean which were delicious. Very flakey like a croissant and fluffy inside.

Prices were just a tad on the pricier side but otherwise, great dessert place. I recommend... read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area, and there is free WLAN. With the extensive diversity of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Cocohodo becomes even more attractive, The sugar-sweet desserts of the restaurant also shine not only in the eyes of our little guests. Cocohodo focuses on a lot of freshly harvested vegetables, fish and meat in its healthy Japanese cuisine.
