What User likes about The Camlin:

with a small group for a weekend brunch. super friendly service. beautiful place. the food was good, they really don't stab over cooked. the many baked pancakes is amazing. server were very happy to sit and wish for easy variations of dishes on the menu. read more.

What User doesn't like about The Camlin:

Sunday brunch a bit hectic. her English breakfast is not so written in the menu serendipitea, but the twinnings. the burger had a strong taste and it seems a dry aged patty (not specified in the menu) and we had to replace it. the roasted home potatoes were hard to digest, but the falling chopped salat was very good. the service was almost unrepresented, but they were nice. read more. In case you're hungry some fiery South American cuisine, you're in the right place: tasty menus, roasted with fish, seafood, and meat, but also corn, beans, and potatoes are on the menu, and you can enjoy here scrumptious American dishes like Burger or Barbecue. After the meal (or during it), you have the opportunity to still relax at the bar with a alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink, In addition, the drinks menu that is offered in this established eatery is impressive. It offers a diverse diversity of beers from the region and the whole world.
