Decided to stop here with friends on a Friday night to have a late dinner. Service was a little slow, but the food was absolutely delicious. The bread loaf they put on the table to begin was hot, buttery and fresh from the oven good! The Lobster Bisque had a lot of taste, with great lobster bites. A bowl served quite a lot. The 6 ounces of steak (ordered medium rare) was perfectly cooked, with the side mushrooms, pot... read more. In pleasant weather you can even be served in the outdoor area. What User doesn't like about Victor's On Van Buren:

We were there last Friday for fish roasts. Our server was not in good mood, which is understandable. The creamy seafood soup was a catastrophe, garbage from frozen imitated crab and scallops in our salty soup was very bad. We had no corners for about 20mins and we had some kind of food discomfort after we came home. I don't know what's going on with this place, but it was bad!!! Do not go there and recommend this...
