The restaurant from Long Beach offers 120 different menus and drinks on the menu at an average price of $19.2. What User likes about Chelsea's Chowder House:

I really wish it was more than stars to date the excellent of this restaurant. I had the steak and lobster while my friend had the nasty eye. both were cooked to perfection. what covered the eating experience was the professional waiting staff. great setting and recording. To be honest, the whole experience on the queen mary was fantastic. we were over at night) we will definitely return. read more. What User doesn't like about Chelsea's Chowder House:

a good food, steaks and seafood were cooked to perfection. the service was dirty, the waitress seemed inexperienced and made a terrible job with the bottle wein brought. I'd go back, just for eating and seeing more from the ship. read more. The Chelsea's Chowder House in Long Beach serves various fine seafood courses, You can also unwind at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
