I've been to a dozen different Chinese restaurants in California, Indiana, Washington, and this has by far been the most authentic and tasty Chinese food I've ever had. I lived in Hebei for a bit and the meal I just had made me think back to my time as a student there. If you're at a loss as to what you should order, give the duck a try, that's what I just had. with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about China Palace: nothing is characterized by this place, except the price of the buffet, a bit high. eating is not high quality, nothing stands out as great, and a few things were rough. 3 stars are generous, but I give it to the staff to draw a buffet in a small city that has a very healthy population and limited access.
