this was our first time with co-workers and a customer for happy hour last week. the food and drink were fantastic and the service was excellent! thank you, dear ladies! we started with the charcuterie and cheeseboards. too many words to describe the crusades. I tell them, however, a hauch of the picked quittenpaste with pious d'affinois similar brie but creamier on a flat cracker, for example, was so delicious! we a... read more. The diner and its rooms are wheelchair accessible and thus usable with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. In the Downtown Wine Merchants from Oakland you can enjoy menus as they are common in Europe, Particularly with the bite-sized Tapas, you can't do anything wrong, because there is something for all tastes. You have the option to, after the meal (or during it), still relax at the bar with an alcoholic or non-alcoholic drink.
