As always delicious food. The aids are large, so take care of the order. We went as a large group of 13 people. You don't take reservations and we've found tables together fortunately. You order and select your order when the Summer leaves. Almost everything we ordered was good. They serve beer and also wine. The sugar beet juice was very good. They also have outdoor seating with heating. If the toilet room has not b... read more.
