I went on camping and worried I would not be able to win some vegan marshmallows for toasting, but they had them! it is small, but Juneau is a small, remote city, and they do a good work with their choice. I also bought a last minute menstruation cup here, which was a lifesaver. I will definitely be back on my next camping trip to Juneau.

we stopped by hoping to have a cup of coffee and a few baked. No one baked was vegan: everything had butter and milk. Sure, there is a health food store, and there are some necessary vegan items: there were silk soy milk, soy yoghurt, and a few other vegan items, but this is not a place to stop and eat.
