The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physical limitations. What User doesn't like about Dimassi's Mediterranean Buffet:

Honestly the food just wasn't all that great. Neither was the service really. Owner/manager (I'm guessing) barely said a word as I paid, didn't ask how the food was or anything. Food all just tasted frozen and not very well prepared, aside from a couple of dishes. Only good thing I could say is that the decor was very nice. Whole restaurant had a good atmosphere to it, except for the somewhat unfriendly staff. Overall... read more. A visit to Dimassi's Mediterranean Buffet is particularly valuable due to the large selection of coffee and tea specialties, Moreover, there are easy to digest Mediterranean dishes on the menu. If you're still not sure, let the smell of freshly baked flatbread or the fine, sticky temptation of fresh baklava convince you - the Middle East is without a doubt closer than you think, Furthermore, the drinks list in this restaurant is impressive and offers a good and comprehensive variety of beers from the area and from worldwide, which are definitely worth a try.
