I must say that the What-a-burger in palestine is the best place to eat. alex, one of the employees who work there, is very friendly and is one of their best workers. I love it when he is in service when I go there to eat and yes, with a good note, they can get a meal with a drink for 4.10 and this is a adult meal not a child's meal. Go to Alex read more. As a customer, you can use the WiFi of the restaurant free of charge, And into the accessible rooms also come customers with wheelchairs or physiological limitations. What Ben Harris doesn't like about

Whataburger:

only giving a 1 star because you cant give a half star ordered in the app for delivery over half the order was wrong and they refused to correct the issue had to call the corp office to get the issue fixed the manager was useless and in my opinion should not be allowed to be in customer service at all in any way so with all that said a word to the wise its probably best to go elsewhere when you actually want to be ab...
