I've been here for over 7 years. it is my go-to asian restaurant! best egg rolls and spring rolls in the city. from a large city where the Vietnamese cuisine is huge, this place came to where I always came back. they bring a little piece to lubbock. the staff turned during the years, but the service always remained the same. very nice people and so a cool place to go after a long day at work. Never disappointed! read more. What User doesn't like about

Saigon:

We decided to try this place on a recommendation from a coworker. The food was ready fast. It smelled good, my order was correct, and was well packaged for the ride home. That was wear my satisfaction ended. There was hair in my husband's entree and my egg roll. It lacked seasoning and another entree tasted like frozen Chinese food. I was really hoping to find a great Vietnamese place but all I found was disappointme... read more.
