We were in Milwaukee for a convention and noticed that Pier 106 was the only seafood restaurant around so decided to give it a try. Its right on the Riverwalk so a great location especially for those who like to sit outside (we didn't). We had great service and our meal was very good. We enjoyed an appetizer of mussels & clams which had white sauce over them - sauce reminded me of New England clam chowder - very... read more. The restaurant is accessible and can therefore also be used with a wheelchair or physiological disabilities. What Lia

Hermann doesn't like about Penrose:

Ask for ahi tuna, they didn't have it. That knocked out about 1/3 of the menu. Ordered mussels + clams. Clams were undercooked and didn't even open. Mussels were empties for about half of them. Waitress was new and apologetic, I hope she finds a new job read more. With the comprehensive variety of coffee and tea specialties, a visit to Penrose becomes even more attractive, well digestible Mediterranean dishes are also available. There are also delicious menus typical for Europe, the customers love having the chance to watch the latest games or races on the big TV in this sports bar, while also enjoying food and drinks.
