What Tim likes about Tico:

Went there for Sunday bottomless food brunch. Service was slow on bringing more food and servers would routinely forget whatever requests you made. The food itself was fantastic, but I don't think it was worth the $30 price point for "all you can eat." I would just order a regular item off the menu and be perfectly happy. Other than that, great ambience, and great food. Just be careful with the "bottomless" food opti... read more. What the food was not too bad, but there are inconsistencies with each dish. the vegetarian section has a variety, but no outstanding dishes. as a little underwhelming as her crispy cauliflower was not very crispy and the vegetable dumpling tastes more like a battery as small as this. read more. Look forward to the diverse, tasty Mexican cuisine, traditionally prepared with corn, beans and chilies (hot peppers), There are also delicious South American dishes in the menu. Without doubt, the right drink enhances every meal; with this thought in mind, this gastropub offers a rich selection of fine and regional alcoholic beverages like beer or wine, You can take a break at the bar with a cool beer or other alcoholic and non-alcoholic drinks.
