Park Asia restaurant offers a hit or miss dining experience for guests. While some found the food mediocre and even experienced issues with sewage water dropping into their dishes and expired drinks, others raved about the delicious pineapple roast pork bun. The dim sum options are decent, but communication with staff can be challenging due to language barriers. Overall, the restaurant seems to cater well to big groups and families, offering a variety of dishes to please different palates. Customers should be mindful of the potential for slow service and mixed quality of the food.
