The outlet in San Francisco is small, with limited seating area. I would advice to book a reservation before coming here as it can get crowded during the weekends and during holiday season. Overall, the food and the ambience was good. They're known for different varieties of dimsums in vegetarian and non vegetarian options and also serve alcoholic and non alcoholic beverages. Their staff has carts which have differen... read more. The restaurant also offers the possibility to sit outside and have something in beautiful weather. What Arsene doesn't like about Yank Sing:

food is fine, better to order fresh instead of taking cold dim sum from the cart. Didn't taste good when pot sticker or the other fried food were cold. Mango pudding didn't come with the milk and the pudding was too hard. Such food quality doesn't match their pricing. read more. Get excited in Yank Sing from San Andreas for versatile, fine Chinese cuisine that's traditionally cooked in a wok, there are also delicious vegetarian dishes on the menu.

No matter the occasion - an event - the in-house catering makes it easy to enjoy the food from Yank Sing at home, Furthermore, the guests love the creative combination of different menus with new and partially experimental products - a good example of successful Asian Fusion.
