Absolutely loved this place. The scenes are from the world, especially the hearty scenarios. It's not for Pricely either. The staff is also friendly. The place is a little small, but you usually get a chair or two. The food is fresh and it is worth your time. Coffee is good, no free refills, but that's okay. If you are in downtown Madison, you need to try. read more. What Jules Bailey doesn't like about Bradbury's:

parked in the james madison park and went easy to bradburbys for ham / arugula / smoked gouda crepe and fennel / obst crepe plus two lattes. the best crepes we had in a long time! we found a new coffee spot to land in madison –woohoo!
