What JAY likes about The Pit Barbeque: First, I don't think that being caught illegally parking in The Pit's spaces gives anybody a right to give them a bad review. I ate there regularly from 1978 to 2001 when I moved from Austin. I love these modest family owned and operated places. The food was consistently good, prices reasonable, and service friendly. If you want to taste what good barbecue was like before the food snobs took over this is the place. I... read more.
